RNG National Heritage Council

Introduction

Background

The National Monuments Council has been operating under the South African “National Monuments Act”, Act 28 of 1969, as a subsidiary body under the National Monuments Council of South Africa. In 1978, its administration was transferred to the local SWA Administration by Proclamation AG 1/1978. Its legal basis before 1969 and the details of its administrative functioning remain to be researched, and could not be considered for this findaid. Owing to the pressing need to have a findaid available, it is being released without the relevant administrative detail information.

Related records

A predecessor of the National Monuments Council was the Historical Monuments Commission. Some records of the Historical Monuments Commission are available in private accessions at the National Archives:

- A.23 - C.J.C. Lemmer
- A.125 - Historical Monuments Commission
- A.240 - F. Gaerdes
- A.769 - Lemmer Collection (Findaid 2/101)

Additional material concerning the work of the National Monuments Council can be found in the following private accessions:

- A.664 - P.Petzold's work in the National Monuments Council
- A.723 - National Monuments (Colour slides by Andreas Vogt)

With the passing of the Heritage Act (Act no.27 of 2004), the National Monuments Council was superseded by the National Heritage Council. No records of the National Heritage Council have yet been transferred. The following private accession is related to the work of the National Heritage Council:

- A.862 - Twyfelfontein World Heritage Site
