

1. Loan

- The NAN does not loan any archives, except for the following instances:
 - ❖ Maps or posters may be issued on short loan for scanning purposes if the required equipment is not available at the Archives, after careful consideration of the particulars of each case, with special permission of the Head of Archives. Any such request may be refused for preservation reasons.